Job Title: Western Native Voice Intern

Qualifications:
- Ability to interact effectively and productively with the general public
- A team player who can work productively both independently and with others
- Self-motivated, good organizational skills, detail-oriented, ability to prioritize, multi-task and meet deadlines
- An understanding of the economic and political issues that affect Indian Country, or a willingness to learn about the issues
- Able and willing to work on weekends and evenings

Responsibilities:
- Research (including, but not limited to) population distribution, demographics, policies, Native voting patterns, funding opportunities
- Register and mobilize Native voters, educate communities on issues affecting Indian Country
- Plan, coordinate and attend outreach events such as setting up information/voter registration tables events such as area powwows, tribal college events and other community activities
- Plan, coordinate and conduct direct canvass outreach events
- Network with community leaders, recruit local volunteers and other supporters to build support for Native voting
- Work closely with tribal, county, state and federal governments (tribal councils/legislatures, county commissioners, election administrators, etc)

Key Competencies:
- Heartfelt commitment to improving Native American communities in Montana
- Attending classes in a college, university or high school
- No Physical Requirements

Benefits of internships with Western Native Voice:
- Build relationship building experience and skills
- Broaden research and writing strategies and skills
- Learn community organizing skills
- Gain knowledge of issues/policies pertaining to Montana’s Indian Country
- Learn about the historical perspective of culture in politics, history and power of the Native Vote
- Professional development in a workforce environment, opportunities for leadership development

Compensation: DOE

How to apply: Send resume and contact information for three references to info@westernnativevoice.org, or by mail to:
ATTN: Internship
Western Native Voice
220 S 27th St, Suite C
Billings, MT 59101

Note:
- This is a part-time, temporary position
- Training will be provided by Western Native Voice
- Western Native Voice will not guarantee a job upon completion of the internship or graduation from school